

Overview of the number of people from the university’s various colleges seeking individual consultations

The university’s Consultation and Counselling Centre provided phone counselling services (until 13 September 2021) in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. In total, 80 persons have called, amounting to 160 person-times.

Overview of the number of people who applied for individual consultations in the 2020 academic year:

Based on the various colleges (including the College of Extension Education)

College	College population	Number of people who applied for consultations	Proportion of college population
College of Education	1,041	262	25.16%
College of Science	1,243	66	5.31%
College of Technology	680	18	2.65%
College of Liberal Art	1,274	124	9.73%
College of Engineering	955	39	4.08%
College of Management	1,273	59	4.63%
College of Social Sciences and Physical Education	506	21	4.15%
College of Extension Education	1,353	8	0.59%
Total	8,325		-

Overview of the person-times for individual consultation in the 2020 academic year:

Based on the various colleges (including the College of Extension Education)

College	Person-times of interviews	Proportion of total person-times
College of Education	2143	45.85%
College of Science	472	10.10%
College of Technology	139	2.97%
College of Liberal Art	943	20.17%
College of Engineering	327	6.99%
College of Management	438	9.37%
College of Social Sciences and Physical Education	172	3.69%
College of Extension Education	40	0.86%

Appendix 3.3.1-Number from the various colleges seeking individual consultation

College	Person-times of interviews	Proportion of total person-times
Total	4674	100%